

SIXT ANNOUNCES CANADIAN EXPANSION, ACCELERATES INTERNATIONAL GROWTH ACROSS NORTH AMERICA

The Leading Mobility Provider Opens Its First Canadian Branch This Month in Downtown Vancouver with More Locations to Follow

Fort Lauderdale, FL (JULY 12, 2022) – SIXT, one of the leading global mobility providers, is accelerating its internationalization and growth strategy with its expansion into the billion-dollar Canadian market. Being one of the largest countries in the world, individual mobility is crucial in Canada. The brand will open in Vancouver first, then Toronto, encompassing the country's two largest car rental destinations. SIXT now covers the North American continent with a growing network that offers best-in-class service for business and leisure travelers in the US and Canada.

SIXT is bringing a unique, premium experience to car rentals in Canada with a higher percentage of premium and lower mileage vehicles, including BMWs and Mercedes-Benz. Canadian branches will also soon offer digital counter-by-pass, which allow customers to not only bypass the counter but also pre-select the vehicle they want to reserve within two hours of pick-up.

The brand's first Canadian branch will be located in downtown Vancouver's Library Square, conveniently positioned near theaters, hotels, sporting stadiums, shopping, and major office buildings. Open 7 days per week, the location is also accessible via major transit routes. Vancouver is one of the most popular destinations for visitors to Canada, and when it comes to exploring the beauty of British Columbia, getting there by car is part of the experience.

"Expanding into Canada is a huge step for our business, and we are excited to bring the premium SIXT experience to our northern neighbors," said Thomas C. Kennedy, President and Chief Financial Officer at SIXT North America. "Vancouver is a gateway to the world-famous Whistler ski resort and an important leisure and commercial port city bringing both corporate and leisure travelers year-round. Toronto is a financial and commercial hub with strong seasonal traffic enjoying the endless Canadian summers and outdoor activities."

David Wong, Regional Vice President Canada, SIXT brings 30 years of experience working in the rental market in Canada. Wong, a Vancouver local, said "SIXT's first Canadian branch office will be located at one of Vancouver's most impressive buildings in the city, and our fleet is unique and impressive. Our customers will appreciate the high-quality fleet of new premium sedans and SUVs, including various BMW models and the Mercedes-Benz GLS 450 SUV with seating for up to 7 passengers."

The Canadian expansion follows the opening of several new locations across the US including Charlotte Douglas International Airport (CLT), Baltimore/Washington International Thurgood Marshall Airport (BWI), Cincinnati/Northern Kentucky International Airport (CVG), Albuquerque International Sunport Airport (ABQ) and Portland International Airport (PDX).
