SIXT expands presence in Canada with first branch in largest Canadian single market Toronto

Pullach, 23 of February 2023 – The international mobility provider SIXT has opened a new rental car branch servicing passengers arriving at Toronto Pearson International Airport (YYZ). Supplying Canada's largest city with premium rental cars is yet another step of its successful internationalization and growth strategy in North America. Only last summer, the company expanded into Canada with branches in Vancouver, extending its presence across the entire North American continent.

The new SIXT branch is located just a few minutes by shuttle from Canada's largest airport, which welcomes nearly 30 million passengers per year. Open seven days a week, both business and leisure customers can expect a large selection of premium vehicles and SIXT's well-known premium service. SIXT now serves two markets in Canada, Vancouver and Toronto, as it continues to expand its coverage throughout the Canadian market.
